The menu for tomorrow is a cold plate for lunch, with salads and cold meat. In the evening we will have lasagnes. As usual, each team will receive a box with a large snack that they can use as they wish.

TIP OF THE DAY...

If you wish to film a match with your video, you can reach the rear side of the competition field by going in through the small hall just next to the conference room. Like that, you do not disturb the teams on the field.

DON'T FORGET :

Thursday morning at 11:00, OFFICIAL RECEPTION by the City of Geneva at the Town Hall. Each team must send at least the Head of Delegation for this occasion. Departure : Queue d'Arve at 10:30 by bus.

MEET THE TEAM...

Marc-Antoine Boccali is better known as Marco. He is currently head trainer for the club of Genève-Elite who plays in the Swiss National 2nd division.

In this year's tournament, he is in charge of the competitions and is the man that oversees all that is going on in, on and around the field.

Further information for every team...

Found : an Ipod with headphones was found in the bathroom, please ask for it at the press room (if it's yours, that is...)

- We offer you with pleasure bottles of water, but we kindly request you not to leave bottles half full all over the place... It's quite a waste !

- We pray the teams NOT to go through the playing field to watch a match, but to please use the public entrance. You can freely enter with your accreditation.

- Don't forget to tell your players not to leave anything on the floor of the locker room for cleaning.
- There is an ice machine at your disposal in the dining room
